

The Wall of Protection

Our Lord gave me to behold a mysterious wall protecting France against the arrow of divine justice. He gave me to understand that this wall which reached up to Heaven, was the exercise which I practiced each day joined no doubt to the prayers and merits offered to God by so many souls for the salvation of France. This exercise consists in presenting the Face of Jesus a Hundred to His Father, in honour of all mysteries of the life and death of the Divine Saviour and in offering these merits of each of these mysteries for the Salvation of France. (Sister Marie De Saint Pierre)

The 100 Offerings of Our Lord Jesus Christ to His Eternal Father

Thirty-three Offerings of Jesus Christ in His Infancy and Hidden Life

1. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, Incarnate in the womb of the Virgin Mary for the salvation of men.
2. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, sanctifying St. John the Baptist in the womb of His mother, St. Elizabeth.
3. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, a captive for nine months in the chaste womb of His Blessed Mother.
4. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, rejected by the inhabitants of Bethlehem.
5. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, coming forth from the womb of His Mother and born in a poor stable.
6. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, wrapped in swaddling-clothes and laid in a manger.
7. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, trembling with cold and warmed by the breath of an ox and a donkey.
8. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, weeping for our sins in the manger.
9. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, by the hands of Mary and St. Joseph, for the salvation of the world
10. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, nursed by Mary.
11. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, adored by angels in the stable of Bethlehem.
12. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, adored by the poor shepherds.
13. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, circumcised and named Jesus, beginning to fulfill the office of Savior in offering Thee the first-fruits of His Blood.
14. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, receiving the gifts and adorations of the Magi.
15. Eternal Father, I offer Thee all the glory that Jesus has rendered Thee during the forty days He dwelt in the stable of Bethlehem.
16. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, brought to the Temple by Mary and Joseph, and received with great joy by the holy old man Simeon and the prophetess Anna.
17. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, who offers Himself to Thy Divine justice to be the repairer of Thy outraged glory and the holy victim of sinners.
18. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, fleeing into Egypt to avoid the murderous hand of Herod.
19. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, poor and unknown in His exile, but tenderly loved and profoundly adored by Mary, Joseph, and the angels.
20. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, carried in the arms of Mary and Joseph and submitting to all the trials of infancy.
21. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, nursed by His Divine Mother for fifteen months.
22. Eternal Father, I offer Thee the first steps, the first words, the first actions of Thy Divine Son Jesus.
23. Eternal Father, I offer Thee all that Jesus suffered the seven years of His exile in Egypt.
24. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, returning to Nazareth between Mary and Joseph.
25. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, growing in age and in wisdom before God and men.
26. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, conducted to the Temple at the age of twelve years to celebrate the Passover.
27. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, remaining three days in the Temple in the midst of the Doctors of the Law, and filling them with admiration.
28. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, found by Mary and Joseph, returning to Nazareth, and being perfectly submissive to them.
29. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, hiding His glory in the workshop of St. Joseph, and seeming to be only a carpenter.
30. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, working for His support by the sweat of His brow.
31. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, assisting St. Joseph during His last illness and at the hour of His death.
32. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, consoling Mary, His Blessed Mother, for the death of her holy spouse.
33. Eternal Father, I offer Thee all the glory that Jesus has rendered Thee during the thirty years of His hidden and laborious life, also all the merits He has acquired for us.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee all the glory that our Divine Saviour Jesus has rendered Thee during the thirty years of His hidden and laborious life, and all the merits He has acquired for us from the moment of His Divine Incarnation until His evangelical Life. I make this offering for the honor and glory of Thy Holy Name, in reparation for the indignities offered our Savior; finally, for the wants of the Holy Church, the Salvation of France (or the country you are praying for), and the Work of Reparation.

Thirty-three Offerings of Jesus in His Evangelical Life

34. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, baptized in the river Jordan by St. John the Baptist.
35. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, led by the Spirit into the desert, and suffering there, hunger and thirst.
36. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, spending His nights in the desert among wild beasts.
37. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, passing days and nights in prayer, watering the ground with His Divine tears, in expiation for our sins.
38. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, tempted by the evil spirit to change stones into bread.
39. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, carried by Satan to the top of the Temple, and tempted by this evil spirit to cast Himself down.
40. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, carried by Satan to the top of a high mountain with the promise of all the kingdoms of the world.
41. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, triumphing over the temptations of the evil spirit and confronting him with the words of Holy Scripture.
42. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, in the desert taking the food ministered by the angels.
43. Eternal Father, I offer Thee all the glory that Jesus has rendered Thee in the desert and all the merits He has acquired for us.
44. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, coming forth from the desert and going to make known to His Blessed Mother the mission He was about to commence.
45. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, choosing poor fishermen for His Apostles.
46. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, going from city to city, from town to town, preaching everywhere the Kingdom of God, and making known His Divine Father.
47. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, followed by immense crowds even to the desert.
48. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, multiplying the loaves and fishes to feed the multitude.
49. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, consoling the afflicted.
50. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, curing the sick and raising the dead.
51. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, driving out the evil spirit from those who were possessed.
52. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, giving sight to the blind and hearing to the deaf.
53. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, curing the lame and making the dumb to speak.
54. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, converting sinners and doing good to all.
55. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, weeping for the death of Lazarus and raising Him to life.
56. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, converting Mary Magdalene.
57. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, weary by the wayside and seated on Jacob's Well.
58. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, asking drink of the Samaritan woman, converting her, and making known to her that He was the promised Messiah.
59. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, confounding His enemies with an admirable wisdom when they presented before Him a woman taken in adultery.
60. Eternal Father, I Offer Thee Jesus, driving the sellers out of the Temple.
61. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, transfigured on Mt. Tabor, conversing with Moses and Elias on the greatness of the sorrows of His Passion.
62. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, embracing and blessing little children, bidding us to become as one of them to enter the Kingdom of Heaven.
63. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, entering the city of Jerusalem in triumph, and received as a King by the people.
64. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, weeping for the sins of Jerusalem.
65. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus alone and abandoned, obliged on the evening of the Feast to seek the hospitality of Martha and Mary, at Bethany.
66. Eternal Father, I offer Thee all the glory that Jesus has rendered Thee during the three years of His Divine preachings.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee all the glory that Jesus, our Divine Savior, has rendered Thee, all the infinite merits He has acquired for us from the moment of His evangelical life until His Passion. I make this offering for the honor and glory of Thy Holy Name, to repair the outrages offered our Divine Savior; finally, for the wants of the Holy Church, the salvation of France (or country you are praying for), and the extension of the Work of Reparation.

Thirty-Four Offerings of Jesus in His Suffering and Glorious Life

67. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, sold for thirty pieces of silver by the traitor Judas.
68. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, taking His Last Supper with His Apostles.
69. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, humbling Himself unto washing the feet of His Apostles.
70. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, instituting the adorable Sacrament of the Eucharist and ordaining His Apostles priests of the New Law.
71. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, praying and in an agony in the Garden of Olives.
72. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, suffering in His Divine Heart all the sorrows of His Passion and watering the earth with a profuse sweat of blood.
73. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, sorrowful unto death in the Garden of Olives, burdened with all the sins of the world, and accepting the chalice from Thy Hand.
74. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, betrayed and kissed by the perfidious Judas, delivering Himself up to His enemies to be bound and blindfolded for our sins.
75. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, abandoned by His disciples, maltreated and outraged by the soldiers, and led to the house of the high-priest Annas.
76. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, interrogated and receiving a blow from a servant.
77. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, conducted to the house of Caiaphas and accused by false witnesses.
78. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, treated as a blasphemer because He declared to His enemies that He was the Son of God.
79. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, despised, struck, and spit upon during that horrible night, and treated as the vilest slave.
80. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, conducted in chains to Pilate's house.
81. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, led to the court of Herod and despised by that impious king.
82. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, reconducted to the house of Pilate, treated with contempt and humiliations on the streets of Jerusalem by a nation which He had overwhelmed with benefits.
83. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, tied to the column and torn by the stripes of the scourge.
84. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, covered with wounds and blood, trampled upon by His executioners.
85. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, arrayed as a mock-king, crowned with thorns, robed in a scarlet mantle, His arms tied, and a reed for a scepter in His hand.
86. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, outraged, despised, and then shown to the people.
87. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, rejected by His people, who with loud voices demanded His death and preferred to Him an infamous thief, Barabbas.
88. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, condemned by Pilate to the death of the Cross.
89. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, given over to an insolent multitude, who vent upon this sweet Lamb, so meek and humble of Heart, all that the darkest malice could devise.
90. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, going forth from Pilate's hall between the two thieves, carrying the Cross upon His Divine Shoulders, bruised and bleeding.
91. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, exhausted by fatigue, falling several times under the heavy burden of His Cross, beaten and overwhelmed with injurious treatment by His executioners.
92. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus on the summit of Calvary, despoiled of His garments and extending Himself on the tree of the Cross as a Lamb without stain.
93. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, nailed with heavy blows of the hammer to the Cross.
94. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, suspended for three hours between heaven and earth, satiated with revilings, partaking of gall and vinegar, and tasting with delight the intensity of interior and exterior sufferings.
95. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, asking forgiveness for His executioners, granting pardon to the good thief, and giving us His most Blessed Mother.
96. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, consummating His sacrifice and yielding up His Holy Soul into Thy Hands, uttering a loud cry to call all sinners to Him, inclining His Head to give them the kiss of peace and the last sigh of His Heart.
97. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, His Heart pierced by a lance, His Sacred Body covered with wounds and blood, taken down from the Cross and placed in the arms of His Divine Mother.
98. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, embalmed and shrouded by His Holy Mother, assisted by His faithful friends; then carried to the sepulchre and remaining therein three days, as He had foretold.
99. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, rising victorious from the tomb and visiting His Blessed Mother.
100. Eternal Father, I offer Thee Jesus, appearing to His Apostles and the holy women for their consolation and instruction, gloriously ascending to heaven in their presence forty days after His Resurrection.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee all the glory that Jesus Christ, our Divine Savior, has rendered Thee, as well as all the merits He has acquired for us during His sorrowful and glorious life. I make this offering for the honor and glory of Thy Holy Name, in reparation for the indignities offered to our Savior — in fine, for the needs of the Holy Church, for the salvation of France (or the country you are praying for) and the entire world, and for the extension of the Work of Reparation.

This is My well-beloved Son, in whom I am, well pleased. Hear ye Him.
In truth I say to thee that all thou wilt ask the Father in My Name He will grant.
Ask, and thou shall receive.

(taken from "Sister Saint-Pierre and the Work of Reparation 1885")